Official Paper of the City. Southern(Outrages--A Remedy Needed.

The outrages upon northern men, who visit the slave states upon business, for the improvement of health, or for pleasure, are becoming so numerous and atrocious that some action on the part of the states or the general government is demanded. We publish to day the account of a citizen of Juneau county in this state, who was, for no offence whatever, most barbarously treated by a mob of pro-slavery fiends in the state of Mississippi.

We have another instance, in the case of Mr. Daniel Johnson, of Union, in this county, who left his home some six weeks since, with the intention of sojourning in the south, during the winter, on account of his health. He has been compelled to turn back from his object, and seek his home again in the north, because he was in danger of losing his life, if he remained in the south. We happen to know that he went south, determined to use every precaution against offending the projudices of the sonthern people, and we have no doubt he carried them out, as he is a judicious and sensible man. But he was a northern man. and that was enough to surround him with implacable enemies, who would not scruple to hung him, for that offence alone.

Another citizen of our county, residing in this city, has recently returned from the south, who informs us that he was arrested his baggage rummaged, his pockets exam med, and himself locked up in a room until a mob in the bar room of the hotel, deter mined his case. Fortunately he had some Breckinridge newspapers with him, and letters from pro slavery business men, and was allowed to go on his way. This gentleman requests us not to use his name in this connection, as he will be obliged to revisit the south, this winter, to close up some business matters there, and if a statement of the indignities he met with, should reach the place where they were perpetrated, he would be in danger of losing his life, if found there again. The politics of the northern man traveling in the south is no protection, as the person alluded to is a strong Breckthe whole north is regarded with enmity, that the prejudice is against a section, and has no reference to politics or individuals.

supposed that an American citizen had a ed thus: right to travel wherever he pleased and choose, with the same freedom that he would be entitled to in the state where he resided. But it seems this is not so, and that a system of violence and outrage has usurped this right in nearly all the southern states. This state of things is not new, for a citizen of this state petitioned the legislature last winter, to take some measures for the protection of people from this state who found it necessary or convenient to sojourn in Texas, where he had been, and where he was ontraged in his person and property, and finally driven out of the state. We Green County.

Now, we do not know that there is any remedy to be applied to cases of this kind, but certainly they have become so outrageous as to demand the attention of our legislature and of congress.

We pin our faith upon no popes in religion or politics. We look at the constitution just as it reads, and make up our conclusions, without asking Judge Taney about it. If the people are willing to take for granted whatever comes from the bench or the pulpit, and give up the right of examining for themselves, they are fit only to be slaves. It is to this degrading position that the Patriot | does not do in this day to hurl anathemas would lead them, and this is the reason why at us. [Cheers.] "God and the right" is

IN A BAD FIX .- The New York correspondent of the Buffalo Commercial says:-The great west is destined to be affected by being unable to sell her grain, which is the staple of the north-western states. On Monday, the drafts drawn by dealers in Chicago and Milwaukee, upon grain ship-ped, were all repudiated here, and the only way that they will receive the grain is to take it as it arrives, sell it if they can, and render a bill of sale. This, as a matter of course, is a great drawback to the western tion to the Union, and to every particle of buyers, for the reason that it compels them | the constitution, on the part of the gentleto lay without the use of their money from the time that the grain leaves Chicago un til it arrives here, is sold, and a bill of sale ment, the risk is so great, that no person will take it without a heavy margin, and the farmer of the west will have to sell his grain that much less, if at all, as well as to deduct for the fall in the market here, which has been twelve cents per bushel in the last week.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN,-The Mil wankee Sentinel says: We regret to annonnce the death of one of our old citizens, Mr. James McNeil, which occurred at noon vesterday. Pennsylvania.

The leading republicans of the Keystone State, says the Chicago Tribune, tendered a fine compliment to Colonel A. K. Mc-Clure, chairman of the People's State Committee, in the form of a banquet at the Continental Hotel, on Sunday last. Speeches were made on the occasion by Morton McMichael, Esq., Colonel McClure, Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, the governor elect, Hon. Wm. D. Kelley, member of congress elect Hon. William B. Mann, ex-mayor Gilpin, Hon. Thomas E. Cochran, auditor general, Henry C. Carey, Esq., and others. It is to be presumed that these gentlemen reflect in a large degree the seutiments of the overwhelming majority which crowned their labors in the recent campaign, and hence their remarks on this occasion, in full view of the threatened disruption of the Union, possess a poculiar interest. If there be any state of the seventeen which cast their | tion. electoral votes for Lincoln and Hamlin, in which, judging from its antocedents, its geographical position and its intimate commercial relations with the south, we might expect a wavering in the present crisis, it is Pennsylvania. But, so far as we may measure the tone of that great common wealth from the remarks of her eminent citizens on the occasion referred to, there

"Gentlemen of Philadelphia, there can be no disunion. We have no machinery in this government for secession. (Enthusiastic cheering.) The time has come. I believe to test this question thoroughly. It is time that you and I should know whether we have a government or not. [Cheers.] When we have constitutionally and peacefully called the man of our choice to the highest office within the gift of our people, it is not for men to say that we shall bargain and temporize before he shall be iningurated. [Loud applause.] He will be the President of this mighty confederacy, elected in strict conformity to the laws; and it will be his duty, as I believe it to be his purpose, to execute the laws in every part of the Union; and let those who will aggress upon the government, take the earful responsibility and the consequences. Applause.

"I am free to say for myself that, if the people of this country cannot choose a presdent in conformity with the constitution and the laws-if the people of the north must never demand protection for their labor, simply seeking honeatly to enforce inridge man. It is, therefore, evident that their claims upon the national government -if the assertion of these rights on the part of the people is ever to be made a pretext, from time to time, for sectional discord, for disarranging your commerce and This is a state of things cannot last much | throwing your whole monetary affairs into longer, without some action being taken to confusion—the dreaded day may come when the north will inquire the value of this Union. From the Missouri Democrat.

Wisconsin, arrived in this city on Tuesday from Memphis, by the steambout J. D. Perry. Mr. S. was driven from Mississippi last week after suffering severe injuries for crimes alleged against bim, but of which he declares his entire innocence. He was formerly employed in this city for a few weeks, as a miller in the Planters' Mills, on Franklin avenue, and went to Mississippi for employment in June last. He bore let ters of recommendation and character, and obtained work in Panola and DeSoto counties, near the Tennessee line. He worked for several parties, dressing mill-stones, and met with no opposition from any party whatever till a week ago yesterday, when ty, for Senatobia station, on the Tennessee Mississippi railroad, seven miles distant, employing a negro to carry himself and this evening from Columbia and reports the trunk in a wagon to the railroad. He was then on his way to Memphis. Arriving at Senatobia after dark, he proceeded to look up some freight for the negro's owner, and in doing so went into the freight depot. While there three or four persons approached him, and asked him where he was going and what he was doing. He told them he was looking for some freight for Looxahoderstanding and declaration that he should mie, but they charged him with being an abolitionist and a suspicious person, and seized and threw him into a freight car, which they locked, and then went up into the village to tell the story. The negro was also arrested, and as afterwards appeared, was threatened with instant death if he did not confess that the man in the freight car had endeavored to persuade him to run off. The negro thinking, probably, to save him-self from torture said that such was the held last evening at U. S. court room for case, but, notwithstanding the confession, the purpose of requesting Hon. Millard he was severely flogged. About 10 o'clock a crowd of thirty or forty returned to the railroad station, took Smithyman out and marched him into the woods. There they stripped him naked, notwithstanding the weather was intensely cold, and gave him a large number of stripes, the victim thinks national subjects of great consideration in two hundred, with a thick leather belt sometimes flat and sometimes with the edge. A man who appeared to be a doctor, then > advised them to desist, saying that they would finish the job the next day. They then put him back in the freight car, with nothing but his clothes and an old rug to protect him during the night. In the moruing he was released and permitted to pay fifty cents for a cup of coffee. An armed force styling themselves "Minute Men," then took him into custody afresh, went into the woods again, made him strip, tied his hands around a tree, and then shaved his head as close as they could. The crowd urged him to tell all abut his doings in the interior, said that they knew he was guilty of exciting slaves to insurrection, had tumpered with them, and all that. Three or four said that if he would confess, his life should be spared, but that if he did not he would be strung up. By this time Smithy man was half dead from exhaustion and fright, and believing that it was his only chance of safety from hanging, he boldly avowed that be had tampered with slaves. With a shout, the eager listeners seized him and some were for hanging him right off. An attempt was made to get a rupe around his neck, but others were so auxious for another operation that the would be executioners failed. Smithyman was stripped, and liquid tar, almost hot enough to scald was poured over his head, and half blinded as he was, the victim was not allowed to put his hands to his eyes to keep the tar from blinding him altogether. They then stuck him all over with loose cotton. After this was through they told him that he must start for Memphis immediately-forty miles off-and not stop till he reached that city. They gave him five minutes to put on his clothes, and while he was trying to pull off some of the cotton, several of the mob stood by kicking his lin bs with their thick boots, black and blue, the marks of which kicking he still bears. They then allowed him to start. Smithyman walked all the way to Memphis, and took the boat

to this city. We give the above statement for what it is worth. The man Smithyman is an honest, sober man, and bears evidence on his person of the infliction of very severe in-

1 MIE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paging companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and monorable dealing, they have but few equals; and no superiors. They are bunded upon the very best securities in the world—first class, bomis and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permuenent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of partic, as the exportence of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueloss. And while there are Companies entering the field of composition, well ententiated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above manuel companies always have and keep over and above their capital traice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies Issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less fates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainly given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly, adjusted and pade.

New York Life Insurance Company Cash Capital over - $1,900,000 all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

From the New York Post Mr. Seward's Position.

DIALOGUE BETWEEN SENSATION REPORTER AND A NON SENSATION SENATUR. The origin of the telegraphic report repecting Senator Seward's position in the resent condition of public affairs will be understood from the following dialogue, which has been transmitted by a well informed correspondent in Washington:

"I happened to overhear the following coming down from the capitol on the first day of the session: Reporter-Governor Seward, I saw a dispatch sent over the wires to New York about you that will produce a sensation. Senator-Ah, what was the dispatch? Reporter—It was "that Senator Seward will very early, probably this week, address the senate on the state of the country, in the character of a pacificator. The speech will be prepared with that Senator's usual ability. Senator-Certainly, that is a very nice dispatch. Pray tell me whether it was not you, yourself, that sent it?

Reporter-Well, I think as like as not it. Senator-Now tell me one thing moren what authority you sent the dispatch. Reporter—I was told so by an eminent and reliable republican that I believed to be a friend of yours. Senator-Very well. Did he tell you his authority? Reporter-No; he didn't pretend to know the fact, but said he had heard it and be-

Senator-Did it not occur to you, under the circumstances, that you could verify its truth by calling on me?

Reporter—Well, yes, it did. But I inquired of some one whether you had yet gone to your own house, or were stopping at some hotel, and he was unable to give me the information. Senator-I think your excuse a fair one and you certainly make a good sensation dispatch. I hope you got your pay for it. Reporter—O, yes; I'm sure of that. Senator—Now I'll tell you how you can make an another one just as good, and get pay for that too. Reporter-Do me that dayor, if you pleasc. Senator-Send another dispatch to night, saying that you have ascertained, upon the very best authority, that there is not one word of truth in the disputch you sent last Reporter-Thank you, Senator, I'will.

Good Morning.

Tunis, Africa, Oct. 14: 1860.

Splendid Pageant—50000 Arab Horsemen—A Valuable Presenti—His Highness, the Bey, went to Algiers to meet the Emperor Napoleon, on the occasion of his Majesty's late visit to the French colonies in Africa. The Emperor received his high; ness with great courtesv and respect, and conferred upon him the grand cross of the legion of honor. Several thousand mounted Arabs, in their costumes and equipments went over to the Algerine territories to assist at the military review which took place. during the emperor's visit. About 50,000 Algerine Arab horsemen were also present, and it is said that never before was ed a more gorgeous display of Arabian magnificence, as regards costumes, horses, and horsemanship. The Bey's wife sent the emperor a rosary composed of pearls and diamonds of immense size, and worth over $20,000. This reserv has been for nearly a century a much valued heir loom in the reigning family of this regency. It was once the sacred relic of a Catholic convent on the coast of Sicily, and was carried off from thence by a renowned Barbary corsair, at the pillage of the convent, during the time of Hamuda Basha, whose reign is looked back upon by the natives as the golden age of the country. The symbol of christianity came into the possession Hamuda Basha, and has ever, until lately, been the property of his descendants. It is now again restored to christian keeping, in the person of the Empress Eugenie.— The Bey's wife wrote a letter to the empress, and entreated the latter to remember in her prayers her Mussulman sister .- Washington Star.

OPINION AT HARPER'S FERRY.-The National Intelligencer says:

A private letter from an inflential cilizen of Harper's Ferry, Virginia, (where, if any where in the south we might expect to find a sentiment of appreheusion,) addressed to a gentlemen of this city, contains the following reference to popular sentiment at that place: "The secession movements in the south are greatly deprecated in this section of the country. With the exception of a very few politicians the people of these parts go for the Union—a secessionists being a 'rara avis.' Though we have perhaps more cause for complaint than any other section, we stand by the integrity of the Strong on property of the market files of the paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solveney and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than rallroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the functuations of the market, and liable, in times of and are very way his content and perminent that realized, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panie, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of compatition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to refinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the uncount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates them can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an americanty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

DIALOGUE BETWEEN SENSITION REPORTER AND A NON-SENSATION SENATOR.

The origin of the telegraphic report respecting Senator Seward's position in the present condition of public affairs will be understood from the following dialogue, which has been transmitted by a well informed correspondent in Washington: "I happened to overhear the following coming down from the capital on the first day of the session: Reporter-Governor Seward, I saw a dis patch sent over the wires to New York about you that will produce a sensation.. Senator-Ah, what was the dispatch? Reporter-It was "that Senator Seward will very early, probably this week, address the senate on the state of the country, in the character of a pacificator. The speech ability. Senator-Certainly, that is a very nice dispatch. Pray tell me whether it was not rou, yourself, that sent it? Reporter-Well, I think as like as not it will be prepared with that Senator's usual

Was. Senator-Now tell me one thing moreon what authority you sent the disputch. Reporter-I was told so by an eminent and reliable republican that I believed to be a friend of yours. Senator-Very well. Did he tell you his authority.? Reporter-No; he didn't pretend to know the fact, but said he had heard it and believed it. Senator-Did it not occur to you, under the circumstances, that you could verify its truth by calling on me?

Reporter-Well, yes, it did. But I inquired of some, one whether you had vet gone to your own, house, or were stopping at some hotel, and he was unable to give me the information...

Senator-I think your excuse a fair one, and you certainly make a good sensation dispatch. I hope you got your pay for it. Reporter—O, yes; I'm sure of that. Senator—Now I'll tell you how you can make an another one just as good, and get pay for that too.

Reporter-Do me that favor, if you piesse. Senator-Send another dispatch to night saying that you have ascertained, upon the very best authority, that there is not one word of truth in the dispatch you sent last Reporter-Thank you, Senator, I will. Good Morning. ...

Tunis, Africa, Oct. 14, 1860. SPLENDID PAGEANT -50000 ARAB HORSE MEN-A VALUABLE PRESENT.-His High ness, the Bey, went to Algiers to meet the Emperor Napoleon, on the occasion of his Majesty's late visit to the French colonies in Africa. The Emperor received his highness with great courtesy and respect, and conferred upon him the grand cross of the legion of honor. Several thousand mounted Arabs, in their costumes and equipments went over to the Algerine territories to assist at the military review, which took place during the emperor's visit. About 50,000 Algerine Arab horsemen were also present, and it is said that never before was witness. ed a more gorgeous display of Arabian magnificence, as regards costumes, horses, and horsemanship. The Bey's wife sent the emperor a rosary composed of pearls and diamonds of immense size, and worth over $20,000. This rosary has been for learly a century a much valued heir loom in the reigning family of this regency. It was once the sacred relie of a Catholic convent on the coast of Sicily, and was carried off from thence by a renowned Barbary corsair, at the pillage of the convent, dur-ing the time of Hamuda Basha, whose reign is looked back upon by the natives as the golden age of the country. The symbol of christianity came into the possession Hamuda Basha, and has ever, until lately, been the property of his descendants. It is now again restored to christian keeping, in the person of the Empress Eugenie .--The Bey's wife wrote a letter to the empress and entreated the latter to remember in her prayers her Mussulman sister .- Washinglon Star.

Southern Outrages -- A Remedy Needed. The outrages upon northern men, who visit the slave states upon business, for the improvement of health, or for pleasure, are becoming so numerous and atrocious that some action on the part of the states or the general government is demanded. We publish to day the account of a citizen of Junean county in this state, who was, for no offence whatever, most barbarously treated by a mob of pro-slavery fiends in the state of Mississippi.

We have another instance, in the case of Mr. Daniel Johnson, of Union, in this coun. electoral votes for Lincoln and Hamlin, in ty, who left his home some six weeks since. with the intention of sojourning in the south, during the winter, on account of his health. He has: been compelled to turn back from his object, and seek his home again in the north, because he was in danger of losing his life, if he remained in the south. We happen to know that he went south, determined to use every precaution against offending the prejudices of the southern people, and we have no doubt he carried them-out, as he is a judicious and sensible man. But he was a northern man, and that was enough to surround him with implacable enemies, who would not scruple to hang him, for that offence alone. Another citizen of our county, residing in this city, has recently returned from the south, who informs us that he was arrested, his baggage rummaged, his pockets examined, and himself locked up in a room until a mob in the bar room of the hotel, determined his case. Fortunately he had some Breckinridge newspapers with him, and letters from pro-slavery business men, and was allowed to go on his way. This gentleman requests us not to use his name in this connection, as he will be obliged to revisit the south, this winter, to close up some business matters there, and if a statement of the indignities he met with, should reach the place where they were perpetrated, he would be in danger of losing his life, if found there again. The politics of the northern man traveling in the south is no protection, as the person alluded to is a strong Breckinridge man. It is, therefore, evident that the whole north is regarded with enmity, that the prejudice is against a section, and has no reference to politics or individuals.

This is a state of things cannot last much longer, without some action being taken to remedy the evil. We believe there is a constitution of the United States in existence yet, notwithstanding the vaporings of er, in fact, this government is a failure-South Carolina, and it says that "the citizens of each state shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states."

Under this provision it has been always supposed that an American citizen had a ed thus: right to travel wherever he pleased and transact any lawful business that he might choose, with the same freedom that he would be entitled to in the state where he resided. But it seems this is not so, and that a system of violence and outrage has usurped this right in nearly all the southern states. This state of things is not new, for a citizen of this state petitioned the legislature last winter, to take some measures for the protection of people from this state who found it necessary or convenient to sojourn allude to the case of William Blount of Green County.

Now, we do not know that there is any ramedy to be applied to cases of this kind, but certainly they have become so outrageous as to demand the attention of our legislature and of congress.

The Madison Patriot is informed that our opinion of the constitutionality of the fugitive slave law is one that we hold. in common with a good many other nonprofessional people, and is not dependent upon what others say about it, whether they happen to be judges or not. We pin our faith upon no popes in religion or politics." We look at the constitution just as it reads, and make up our conclusions, without asking Judge Taney about it. If the people are willing to take for granted whatever comes from the bench or the pulpit, and give up the right of examining for themgive up the right of examining for them this Union, the Keystone of this federal selves, they are fit only to be slaves. It is arch, with truth and right upon our side, it to this degrading position that the Patriot would lead them, and this is the reason why it sneers at those who think for themseves.

IN A BAD FIX .- The New York correspondent of the Buffalo Commercial says:-The great west is destined to be affected by being unable to sell her grain, which is the staple of the north-western states. On Monday, the drafts drawn by dealers in Chicago and Milwaukee, upon grain ship-ped, were all repudiated here, and the only way that they will receive the grain is to take it as it arrives, sell it if they can, and render a bill of sale. This, as a matter of course, is a great drawback to the western buyers, for the redson that it compels them to lay without the use of their money from the time that the grain leaves Chicago un-til it arrives here, is sold, and a bill of sale is returned to the starting point. Even if he does not lose anything upon this ship-ment, the risk is so great, that no person will take it without a heavy margin, and the farmer of the west will have to sell his grain that much less, if at all, as well as to deduct for the fall in the market here, which has been twelve cents per bushel in the last week.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN .-- The Milwankee Sentinel says: We regret to annonnce the death of one of our old citizens, Mr. James McNeil, which occurred at noon yesterday. Mr. McNeil came to Milwaukee from Perthshire, Scotland, in 1836, and for the past twenty-four years has lived in the house, where, yesterday, he drew his last breath. He was an honest, industrious first hearing of Lincoln's election, and man; a good citizen, kind neighbor and thought secession their only means of safe true friend.

19th inst., at Portage City.

The leading republicans of the Keystone State, says the Chicago Tribuna, tendered fine compliment to Colonel A. K. Mc-Clure, chairman of the People's State Committee, in the form of a banquet at the Continental Hotel, on Sunday last. Speeches were made on the occasion by Morton McMichael, Esq., Colonel McClure, Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, the governor elect, Hon. Wm. D. Kelley, member of congress elect Hon. William B. Mann, ex-mayor Gilpin, Hon. Thomas E. Cochran, auditor general, Henry C. Carey, Esq., and others. It is to be presumed that these gentlemen reflect in a large degree the sentiments of the overwhelming majority which crowned their labors in the recent campaign, and hence their remarks on this occasion, in full view of the threatened disruption of the Union, any state of the seventeen which cast their | tion. which, judging from its antecedents, its geographical position and its intimate commercial relations with the south, we might expect a wavering in the present crisis, it s Pennsylvania. But, so far as we may nessure the tone of that great commonwealth from the remarks of her eminent citizens on the occasion referred to, there s as little disposition to yield to the denands of the cotton states, as in Vermout or Wisconsin.

Colonel McClure, the gnest of the evenng, in response to a toast complimentary to himself, said :

"Gentlemen of Philadelphia, there can e no disunion. We have no machinery in this government for secession. (Enthusiastic cheering.) The time has come, I be-lieve to test this question thoroughly. It is time that you and I should know whether ve have a government or not. [Cheers.] When we have constitutionally and peace fully called the man of our choice to the highest office within the gift of our people, t is not for men to say that we shall bargain and temporize before he shall be in augurated. [Loud applause.] He will be the President of this mighty confederacy elected in strict conformity to the laws and it will be his duty, as I believe it to be his purpose, to execute the laws in every part of the Union; and let those who will aggress upon the government, take the fearful responsibility and the consequences. [Applause.]
"I am free to say for myself that, if the people of this country cannot choose a president in conformity with the constitution and the laws-if the people of the north must never demand protection for their labor, simply seeking honestly to enforce their claims upon the national government -if the assertion of these rights on the part of the people is ever to be made a pretext, from time to time, for sectional discord, for disarranging your commerce and throwing your whole monetary affairs into confusion —the dreaded day may come when the north will inquire the value of this Union. (Applause.) They demand that the time has come when we shall know whethwhen the question shall be settled whether it is equal to the task of vindicating itself and maintaining the supremacy of its laws. Applause.

Gov. Curtin, in a speech of much power, but withal eminently conservative, conclud-

"We shall only be faithful to our history and traditions-to the fathers of our con stitution-to our theory of government-to when we assert that Pennsylvania, now and forever, will vindicate her rights, and will lemand that every state, north and south, shall be faithful as herself to constitutional obligations." [Cheers.]

Judge Kelly, responding to a toast proposing the health of the President elect, spoke as follows:

"Imbued as deeply as a man can be with love of national, constitutional liberty-with in Texas, where he had been, and where the views which prevailed at the time when be was outraged in his person and proper-ty, and finally driven out or the state. We vaded the minds of the men of that great era-he runs to no extreme; but, having weighed the argument and the consequences, he plants his foot like the great minded and a great hearted man; and there he stands, waiting, if need he, for the ages to come round to the truth. [Loud applause. "Honest, independent, firm and coerget ic, his genial heart embraces his whole country. And, gentlemen, whatever the madees of the hour may suggest, we may be assured that "Uncle Abraham," having been inaugurated, he will be President of the United States, and will see that from our flag no star shall fall-[enthusiastic cheers and by his firm and wise adminis-tration will satisfy the country and the world, that while the republican party are devoted to "Union and liberty, one and in-divisible," they are no less devoted to the sovereignty of the states-to the maintenauce of all the rights of the feeblest sovereignty. [Cheers.]'

Ex Mayor Gilpin concluded a brief but pointed speech in these words :

"Mr. President, considering the proud position which we can take in the centre of does not do in this day to hurl anothemas at us, [Cheers.] "God and the right" is our motto. When we have been faithful in defence of the constitution and the laws, i does not do to upbraid us with those matters of complaint which are made the pretext for secession in the south. It does not do for men to point their finger at Pennsylvania and say to her, "You have been unfaith ful." Pennsylvania has obeyed that higher law which is established by the comity of nations, and which is based upon the law of God itself; that is, to respect your neighbors and their institutions." [Applause.]

Amid the warmest asseverations of devotion to the Union, and to every particle of the constitution, on the part of the gentlemen present, there was shown a unanimous determination to take no step backwards involving a departure from the principles apon which their triumph was achieved.

An Englishman Lynchedin Mississippi HE IS FLOGGED. TARRED AND COTTONED, FOR ALLEGED TAMPERING WITH SLAVES.

A respectable looking man named Wm. Smithyman, a native of England, and for several years a resident of Junes 🗝 county, Wisconsin, arrived in this city on Tuesday, from Memphis, by the steamboat J. D. Perry. Mr. S. was driven from Mississippi last week after suffering severe injuries for crimes alleged against him, but of which he declares his entire innocence. He was formerly employed in this city for a few veeks, as a miller in the Planters' Mills, on Franklin avenue, and went to Mississippi for employment in June last. He bore letters of recommendation and character, and obtained work in Panola and DeSoro countics, near the Tennessee line. for several parties, dressing mill-stones, and met with no opposition from any party whatever till a week ago yesterday, when he started from Looxahomie, De Soto county, for Senatobia station, on the Tennessee Mississippi railroad, seven miles distant, employing a negro to carry himself and trunk in a wagon to the railroad. He was then on his way to Memphis. Arriving at Senatobia after dark, he proceeded to look up some freight for the negro's owner, and doing so went into the freight depot. While there three or four persons approached him, and usked him where he was going and what he was doing. He told them he was looking for some freight for Looxahomie, but they charged him with being an abolitionist and a suspicious person, and seized and threw him into a freight car, which they locked, and then went up into the village to tell the story. The negro was also arrested, and as afterwards appeared, was threatened with instant death if he did not confess that the man in the freight car had endeavored to persuade him to run off. The negro thinking, probably, to save him-self from torture said that such was the case, but, notwithstanding the confession, he was severely flogged. About 10 o'clock a crowd of thirty or forty returned to the railroad station, took Smithyman out and marched him into the woods. There they stripped him naked, notwithstanding the weather was intensely cold, and gave him a large number of stripes, the victim thinks two hundred, with a thick leather belt sometimes flat and sometimes with the edge. A man who appeared to be a doctor, then

advised them to desist, saying that they would finish the job the next day. They then put him back in the freight car, with nothing but his clothes and an old rug to protect him during the night. In the morning he was released and permitted to pay fifty cents for a cup of coffee. An armed force styling themselves "Minute Men," then took him into custody afresh, went into the woods again, made him strip, tied his hands around a tree, and then shaved his head as close as they could. The crowd urged him to tell all abut his doings in the interior, said that they knew he was guilty of exciting slaves to insurrection, had pered with them, and all that. Three or our said that if he would confess, his life should be spared, but that if he did not he would be strung up. By this time Smithyman was half dead from exhaustion and fright, and believing that it was his chance of safety from hanging, he holdly avowed that he had tampered with slaves. With a shout, the eager listeners seized him and some were for hanging him right off. An attempt was made to get a rope around his neck, but others were so anxious for another operation that the would be executioners failed. Smithyman was stripped, and liquid tar, almost hot enough to was poured over his head, and half blinded as he was, the victim was not allowed to put his hands to his eyes to keep the tar from blinding him altogether. They then stuck him all over with loose cotton. After this was through they told him that he must start for Memphis immediately-forty miles off-and not stop till he reached that city. They gave him five minutes to put on his clothes, and while he was trying to pull off some of the cotton, several of the mob stood by kicking his limbs with their thick boots, black and blue, the marks of which kicking he still bears. They then allowed him to start. Smithyman walked all the way to Memphis, and took the boat to this city. We give the above statement for what it Mr. Anthony said let the notes be sold is worth. The man Smithyman is an hon-

Official Paper of the City. Southern(Outrages--A Remedy Needed.

The outrages upon northern men, who visit the slave states upon business, for the improvement of health, or for pleasure, are becoming so numerous and atrocious that some action on the part of the states or the general government is demanded. We publish to day the account of a citizen of Juneau county in this state, who was, for no offence whatever, most barbarously treated by a mob of pro-slavery fiends in the state of Mississippi. We have another instance, in the case of Mr. Daniel Johnson, of Union, in this county, who left his home some six weeks since, with the intention of sojourning in the south, during the winter, on account of his health. He has been compelled to turn back from his object, and seek his home again in the north, because he was in danger of losing his life, if he remained in the south. We happen to know that he went south, determined to use every precaution against offending the projudices of the sonthern people, and we have no doubt he carried them out, as he is a judicious and sensible man. But he was a northern man. and that was enough to surround him with implacable enemies, who would not scruple to hung him, for that offence alone.

Another citizen of our county, residing in this city, has recently returned from the south, who informs us that he was arrested his baggage rummaged, his pockets exam med, and himself locked up in a room until a mob in the bar room of the hotel, deter mined his case. Fortunately he had some Breckinridge newspapers with him, and letters from pro slavery business men, and was allowed to go on his way. This gentleman requests us not to use his name in this connection, as he will be obliged to revisit the south, this winter, to close up some business matters there, and if a statement of the indignities he met with, should reach the place where they were perpetrated, he would be in danger of losing his life, if found there again. The politics of the northern man traveling in the south is no protection, as the person alluded to is a strong Breckthe whole north is regarded with enmity, that the prejudice is against a section, and has no reference to politics or individuals.

supposed that an American citizen had a ed thus: right to travel wherever he pleased and choose, with the same freedom that he would be entitled to in the state where he resided. But it seems this is not so, and that a system of violence and outrage has usurped this right in nearly all the southern states. This state of things is not new, for a citizen of this state petitioned the legislature last winter, to take some measures for the protection of people from this state who found it necessary or convenient to sojourn in Texas, where he had been, and where he was ontraged in his person and property, and finally driven out of the state. We Green County.

Now, we do not know that there is any remedy to be applied to cases of this kind, but certainly they have become so outrageous as to demand the attention of our legislature and of congress.

We pin our faith upon no popes in religion or politics. We look at the constitution just as it reads, and make up our conclusions, without asking Judge Taney about it. If the people are willing to take for granted whatever comes from the bench or the pulpit, and give up the right of examining for themselves, they are fit only to be slaves. It is to this degrading position that the Patriot | does not do in this day to hurl anathemas would lead them, and this is the reason why at us. [Cheers.] "God and the right" is

IN A BAD FIX .- The New York correspondent of the Buffalo Commercial says:-The great west is destined to be affected by being unable to sell her grain, which is the staple of the north-western states. On Monday, the drafts drawn by dealers in Chicago and Milwaukee, upon grain ship-ped, were all repudiated here, and the only way that they will receive the grain is to take it as it arrives, sell it if they can, and render a bill of sale. This, as a matter of course, is a great drawback to the western tion to the Union, and to every particle of buyers, for the reason that it compels them | the constitution, on the part of the gentleto lay without the use of their money from the time that the grain leaves Chicago un til it arrives here, is sold, and a bill of sale is returned to the starting point. Even if involving a departure from the principles he does not lose anything upon this ship upon which their triumph was achieved. ment, the risk is so great, that no person will take it without a heavy margin, and the farmer of the west will have to sell his grain that much less, if at all, as well as to deduct for the fall in the market here, which has been twelve cents per bushel in the last week.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN,-The Mil wankee Sentinel says: We regret to annonnce the death of one of our old citizens, Mr. James McNeil, which occurred at noon vesterday. Pennsylvania.

The leading republicans of the Keystone State, says the Chicago Tribune, tendered a fine compliment to Colonel A. K. Mc-Clure, chairman of the People's State Committee, in the form of a banquet at the Continental Hotel, on Sunday last. Speeches were made on the occasion by Morton McMichael, Esq., Colonel McClure, Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, the governor elect, Hon. Wm. D. Kelley, member of congress elect Hon. William B. Mann, ex-mayor Gilpin, Hon. Thomas E. Cochran, auditor general, Henry C. Carey, Esq., and others. It is to be presumed that these gentlemen reflect in a large degree the seutiments of the had the loan taken at one per cent. overwhelming majority which crowned their labors in the recent campaign, and hence their remarks on this occasion, in full view of the threatened disruption of the Union, possess a poculiar interest. If there be any state of the seventeen which cast their | tion. electoral votes for Lincoln and Hamlin, in which, judging from its antocedents, its geographical position and its intimate commercial relations with the south, we might expect a wavering in the present crisis, it is Pennsylvania. But, so far as we may measure the tone of that great common wealth from the remarks of her eminent citizens on the occasion referred to, there is as little disposition to yield to the deor Wisconsin. Colonel McClure, the guest of the evening, in response to a toast complimentary to himself, said :

mands of the cotton states, as in Vermout

"Gentlemen of Philadelphia, there can be no disunion. We have no machinery in this government for secession. (Enthusiastic cheering.) The time has come. I believe to test this question thoroughly. It is time that you and I should know whether we have a government or not. [Cheers.] When we have constitutionally and peacefully called the man of our choice to the highest office within the gift of our people, it is not for men to say that we shall bargain and temporize before he shall be iningurated. [Loud applause.] He will be the President of this mighty confederacy, elected in strict conformity to the laws; and it will be his duty, as I believe it to be his purpose, to execute the laws in every part of the Union; and let those who will aggress upon the government, take the earful responsibility and the consequences. Applause.

"I am free to say for myself that, if the people of this country cannot choose a presdent in conformity with the constitution and the laws-if the people of the north must never demand protection for their labor, simply seeking honeatly to enforce inridge man. It is, therefore, evident that their claims upon the national government -if the assertion of these rights on the part of the people is ever to be made a pretext, from time to time, for sectional discord, for disarranging your commerce and This is a state of things cannot last much | throwing your whole monetary affairs into longer, without some action being taken to confusion—the dreaded day may come when the north will inquire the value of this Union. posing the health of the President elect, ceeds of the sales of the public lands are

"Mr. President, considering the proud position which we can take in the centre of ern states after January 1st and applying this Union, the Keystone of this federal arch, with truth and right upon our side, it our motto. from Memphis, by the steambout J. D. Perry. Mr. S. was driven from Mississippi last week after suffering severe injuries for crimes alleged against bim, but of which he declares his entire innocence. He was formerly employed in this city for a few weeks, as a miller in the Planters' Mills, on Franklin avenue, and went to Mississippi for employment in June last. He bore let ters of recommendation and character, and obtained work in Panola and DeSoto counties, near the Tennessee line. He worked for several parties, dressing mill-stones, and met with no opposition from any party whatever till a week ago yesterday, when ty, for Senatobia station, on the Tennessee Mississippi railroad, seven miles distant, employing a negro to carry himself and this evening from Columbia and reports the trunk in a wagon to the railroad. He was then on his way to Memphis. Arriving at Senatobia after dark, he proceeded to look up some freight for the negro's owner, and in doing so went into the freight depot. While there three or four persons approached him, and asked him where he was going and what he was doing. He told them he was looking for some freight for Looxahoderstanding and declaration that he should mie, but they charged him with being an abolitionist and a suspicious person, and seized and threw him into a freight car, which they locked, and then went up into the village to tell the story. The negro was also arrested, and as afterwards appeared, was threatened with instant death if he did not confess that the man in the freight car had endeavored to persuade him to run off. The negro thinking, probably, to save him-self from torture said that such was the held last evening at U. S. court room for case, but, notwithstanding the confession, the purpose of requesting Hon. Millard he was severely flogged. About 10 o'clock a crowd of thirty or forty returned to the railroad station, took Smithyman out and marched him into the woods. There they stripped him naked, notwithstanding the weather was intensely cold, and gave him a large number of stripes, the victim thinks national subjects of great consideration in two hundred, with a thick leather belt sometimes flat and sometimes with the edge. A man who appeared to be a doctor, then advised them to desist, saying that they would finish the job the next day. They then put him back in the freight car, with nothing but his clothes and an old rug to protect him during the night. In the moruing he was released and permitted to pay fifty cents for a cup of coffee. An armed force styling themselves "Minute Men," then took him into custody afresh, went into the woods again, made him strip, tied his hands around a tree, and then shaved his head as close as they could. The crowd urged him to tell all abut his doings in the interior, said that they knew he was guilty of exciting slaves to insurrection, had tumpered with them, and all that. Three or four said that if he would confess, his life should be spared, but that if he did not he would be strung up. By this time Smithy man was half dead from exhaustion and fright, and believing that it was his only chance of safety from hanging, he boldly avowed that be had tampered with slaves. With a shout, the eager listeners seized him and some were for hanging him right off. An attempt was made to get a rupe around his neck, but others were so auxious for another operation that the would be executioners failed. Smithyman was stripped, and liquid tar, almost hot enough to scald was poured over his head, and half blinded as he was, the victim was not allowed to put his hands to his eyes to keep the tar from blinding him altogether. They then stuck him all over with loose cotton. After this was through they told him that he must start for Memphis immediately-forty miles off-and not stop till he reached that city. They gave him five minutes to put on his clothes, and while he was trying to pull off some of the cotton, several of the mob stood by kicking his lin bs with their thick boots, black and blue, the marks of which kicking he still bears. They then allowed him to start. Smithyman walked all the way to Memphis, and took the boat

to this city. We give the above statement for what it is worth. The man Smithyman is an honest, sober man, and bears evidence on his person of the infliction of very severe in-

JUSTUS CARPENTER, Sec'y. A Trip South.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 6, 1860. MESSES. EDITORS :-- I agreed with a number of my friends, when I left home, that when I saw anything to interest me, I would communicate the same. The question may arise why I have not done so before. In answer I will say that the first month after I left home I was sick a greater part of the concluded, notwithstanding the excitement in the south, to make my way as far south as the people would let me go. From Cincinnati I went to Louisville, and from Louisville I took a through ticket to Nashville, Tenn., with the promise of a stop over ticket at Mammoth cave, which, however, I did not get, and was obliged to pass along or loose my ticket. On my arrival at Nashville I found there was an additional excitement over the Montgomeryraid on the Missouri border, which is doubtless exaggerated. Staying there one day, I found it was actually necessary to stay indoors or lay myself liable to a warmer coat than I think the climate requires. The lower class of people are perfectly crazy, set on by a set of political demagogues. The hotel keepers treated me like gentlemen and did all they could to protect me, but advised me not to attempt to winter in the south unless I was willing to confine myself to some hotel parlor, which I did not propose to do. Not liking the idea of turning back without seeing more of the "institution," I took the cars for Stevenson, Alabama, but finding the political atmosphere still hotter the farther south I got, I concluded to make my visit short, and accordingly turned my course towards Washington, where I arrived on the 4th inst., glad to get where I could breathe free and say what I please.

I do not think there is any danger in traveling on railroads in the south, if a man wants to go right along without stoppingthat is if he has got money enough to pay five or six cents a mile for riding.

I shall stay here a few days to see the elephant, and hear the southern lion roar. The southern members, with few exceptions, say they want no compromise-all they want is peaceable secession. The president says there is no such thing as secession or coercion; rather an awkward posi-

I shall probably be at home by the first of January, satisfied that Rock county is about as good a place to live as there is anywhere. Yours.

DANIEL JOHNSON.

GET YOUR TICKETS FOR THE LECTURE .--Without doubt Lappin's Hall will be crowded on Thursday evening, upon the occasion of John B. Gough's lecture on temperance, and it will be well for those who design to attend to purchase their tickets previous to the lecture. It will be extremely unpleasant for a large crowd to stand in the cold. at the ticket office waiting to be served, as is sometimes the case. There is also a scarcity of small change which will add to the annoyance of those who wait till the evening of the lecture before securing their tickets. Foreseeing these difficulties, the committee of the Temperance League have left tickets for sale at the two bookstores, Newell's and Moseley's, and at Bootman's Music Store. The doors of Lappin's Hall will be opened at 6 o'clock P. M., and the lecture will commence at 7.

be given at the house of Charles Graves, in Emerald Grove, Christmas eve, 24th inst. The young people of the neighborhood will undoubtedly have a pleasant party.

JOHN B. GOUGH'S LECTURE IN MILWAU KEE.-The Sentinel of Tuesday thus speaks

of Gough's lecture in Milwaukee:

Another very large audience attended the lecture of John B. Gough last evening, at Albany Hall. Every available foot of room in the passages and on the stage was filled with eager listeners. His subject was Temperance. A subject which in his hands receives ample justice. For nearly two hours he held the audience spell bound, at one moment wiping away the sympathetic tears, and at another laughing poisterously Mr. Gough has sensibly improved since he left this country for Europe. His powers of eloquence have become matured and his wonderful faculty of mimicry is made subservient and held in restraint. He is the same impetuous, earnest orator, however, with a deeper insight into the great human heart, and breader and deeper views of the world and humanity. It would be utterly impossible to describe in the limits of a paragraph either his powers or their effects on an audience. No such combination of oratory and pantomime ever before stepped upon the temperance stage, and it would not be saying too much to as-sert that the audience would willingly have sat there another hour and heard him, their sympathies enlisted and their nerves 'tingling under the wonderful mesmeric influ ence of the orator.

He concluded his lecture with the well-known and beautiful apostrophe to water.

Holiday Gifts.—In no matter can a November 21st, good taste be better consulted than in the selection of a gift, and when a season peculiarly devoted to the interchange of friendly remembrances approaches, a dealer who, from his business, or his own taste, adapts his articles to the wants of the community, confers a benefit upon others while he consults his own interests. We have just given the bookstore of Mr. Newett a visit, and examined particularly the various articles in it that will make a seasonable as well as a really valuable gift. Aside from the general stock of standard and new books, Mr. Newell has a very choice collection of annuals, illustrated works and holiday publications, together with a variety of other articles that combine elegance with usefulness. To those who desire such selection of this character, we recommend a call at this bookstore.

Official Paper of the City. Southern Outrages -- A Remedy Needed.

The ontrages upon northern men, who visit the slave states upon business, for the improvement of health, or for pleasure, are becoming so numerous and atrocious that some action on the part of the states or the general government is demanded. We in a large degree the sentiments of the publish to day the account of a citizen of Juneau county in this state, who was, for labors in the recent campaign, and hence no offence whatever, most barbarously their remarks on this occasion, in full view treated by a mob of pro-slavery fiends in the state of Mississippi.

We have another instance, in the case of Mr. Daniel Johnson, of Union, in this coun. ty, who left his home some six weeks since, with the intention of sojourning in the south, during the winter, on account of his health. He has been compelled to turn back from his object, and seek his home again in the north, because he was in danger of losing his life, if he remained in the south, determined to use every precaution against offending the prejudices of the southern people, and we have no doubt he carried them out, as he is a judicious and sensible man. But he was a northern man, and that was enough to surround him with implacable enemies, who would not scruple to hang him, for that offence alone.

Another citizen of our county, residing in this city, has recently returned from the south, who informs us that he was arrested, his baggage rummaged, his pockets examined, and himself locked up in a room until a mob in the bar room of the hotel, determined his case. Fortunately he had some Breckinridge newspapers with him, and letters from pro slavery business men, and was allowed to go on his way. This gentleman requests us not to use his name in this connection, as he will be obliged to revisit the south, this winter, to close up some business matters there, and if a statement of the indignities be met with, should reach the place where they were perpetrated, he would be in danger of losing his life, if found there again. The politics of the northern man traveling in the south is no protection, as the person alluded to is a strong Breckinvidge man. It is, therefore, evident that the whole north is regarded with enmity, that the prejudice is against a section, and has no reference to politics or individuals.

This is a state of things cannot last much longer, without some action being taken to remedy the evil. We believe there is a constitution of the United States in existence yet, notwithstanding the vaporings of South Carolina, and it says that "the citizens of each state shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states."

Under this provision it has been always supposed that an American citizen had a right to travel wherever he pleased and transact any lawful business that he might choose, with the same freedom that he would be entitled to in the state where he resided. But it seems this is not so, and that a system of-violence and outrage has usurped this right in nearly all the southern states. This state of things is not new, for a citizen of this state petitioned the legislature last winter, to take some measures for the protection of people from this state who found it necessary or convenient to sojourn in Texas, where he had been, and where he was outraged in his person and property, and finally driven out of the state. We allude to the case of William Blount of Green County.

Now, we do not know that there is any remedy to be applied to cases of this kind, but certainly they have become so outrageous as to demand the attention of our legislature and of congress.

The Madison Patriot is informed that our opinion of the constitutionality of the fugitive slave law is one that we hold, in common with a good many other nonprofessional people, and is not dependent upon what others say about it, whether they happen to be judges or not. We pin our We look at the constitution just as it reads, and make up our conclusions, without asking Judge Taney about it. If the people are willing to take for granted whatever comes from the bench or the pulpit, and give up the right of examining for themselves, they are fit only to be slaves. It is | arch, with truth and right upon our side, it to this degrading position that the Patriot would lead them, and this is the reason why it sneers at those who think for themseves.

IN A BAD FIX.-The New York correspondent of the Buffalo Commercial says:-The great west is destined to be affected by being unable to sell her grain, which is the staple of the north-western states. On Monday, the drafts drawn by dealers in Chicago and Milwaukee, upon grain shipped, were all repudiated here, and the only way that they will receive the grain is to take it as it arrives, sell it if they can, and render a bill of sale. This, as a matter of course, is a great drawback to the western buyers, for the reason that it compels them to lay without the use of their money from the time that the grain leaves Chicago until it arrives here, is sold, and a bill of sale is returned to the starting point. Even if he does not lose anything upon this shipment, the risk is so great, that no person will take it without a heavy margin, and the farmer of the west will have to sell his grain that much less, if at all, as well as to deduct for the fall in the market here, which has been twelve cents per bushel in the last week.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.-The Milwankee Sentinel says: We regret to announce the death of one of our old citizens. Mr. James McNeil, which occurred at noon yesterday. Mr. McNeil came to Milwaukee from Perthshire, Scotland, in 1836, and for the past twenty-four years has lived in the house, where, yesterday, he drew his last true friend.

per memorine to Ponusylvaniais a The leading republicans of the Keystone State, says the Chicago Tribune, tendered a fine compliment to Colonel A. K. Mc-Clure, chairman of the People's State Committee, in the form of a banquet at the Continental Hotel, on Sunday last. Speeches were made on the occasion by Morton McMichael, Esq., Colonel McClure, Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, the governor elect, Hon. Wm. D. Kelley, member of congress elect, Hon. William B. Mann, ex-mayor Gilpin, Hon. Thomas E. Cochran, auditor general, Henry C. Carey, Esq., and others. It is to be presumed that these gentlemen reflect overwhelming majority which crowned their of the threatened disruption of the Union, possess a peculiar interest. If there be any state of the seventeen which cast their electoral votes for Lincoln and Hamlin, in which, judging from its antecedents, its geographical position and its intimate commercial relations with the south, we might expect a wavering in the present crisis, it is Pennsylvania. But, so for as we may measure the tone of that great commonwealth from the remarks of her eminent south. We happen to know that he went citizens on the occasion referred to, there is as little disposition to yield to the deinands of the cotton states, as in Vermont or Wisconsin.

> Colonel McClure, the guest of the evening, in response to a toast complimentary to himself, said :

"Gentlemen of Philadelphia, there can be no disunion. We have no machinery in this government for secession. (Enthusiastic cheering.) The time has come, I believe to test this question thoroughly. It is time that you and I should know whether we have a government or not. [Checrs.] When we have constitutionally and peacefully called the man of our choice to the highest office within the gift of our people, it is not for men to say that we shall gain and temporize before he shall be iningurated. [Loud applause.] He will be he President of this mighty confederacy, elected in strict conformity to the laws; and it will be his duty, as I believe it to be his purpose, to execute the laws in every part of the Union; and let those who wil aggress upon the government, take the fearful responsibility and the consequences.

[Applause.]
"I am free to say for myself that, if the people of this country cannot choose a president in conformity with the constitution and the laws-if the people of the north must never demand protection for their labor, simply seeking bonestly to enforce their claims upon the national government —if the assertion of these rights on the part of the people is ever to be made a pretext, from time to time, for sectional discord, for disarranging your commerce and throwing your whole monetary affairs into confusion-the dreaded day may come when the north will inquire the value of this Union. (Applause.) They demand that the time has come when we shall know whether, in fact, this government is a failurewhen the question shall be settled whether it is equal to the task of vindicating itself and maintaining the supremacy of its laws. Applause.

Gov. Curtin, in a speech of much power, but withal eminently conservative, concluded thus:

"We shall only be faithful to our history and traditions-to the fathers of our con stitution-to our theory of government-to our instincts, our sentiments and our habits when we assert that Pennsylvania, now and forever, will vindicate her rights, and will demand that every state, north and south, shall be faithful as herself to constitutional obligations." [Cheers.]

posing the health of the President elect, spoke as follows: "Imbued as deeply as a man can be with love of national, constitutional liberty-with the views which prevailed at the time when our constitution was framed, and which pervaded the minds of the men of that great era-he runs to no extreme; but, having weighed the argument and the consequen ces, he plants his foot like the great-minded and a great-hearted man; and there he stands, waiting, if need be, for the ages to come round to the truth. [Loud applause. Honest, independent, firm and energet ie, his genial heart embraces his whole country. And, gentlemen, whatever the madness of the hour may suggest, we may be assured that "Uncle Abraham," having been inaugurated, he will be President of the United States, and will see that from our flag no star shall fall-[enthusiastic cheers —and by his firm and wise administration will satisfy the country and the world, that while the republican party are devoted to "Union and liberty, one and indivisible," they are no less devoted to the faith upon no popes in religion or politics. sovereignty of the states—to the maintenance of all the rights of the feeblest sovereignty. [Cheers.]" Ex-Mayor Gilpin concluded a brief but pointed speech in these words:

"Mr. President, considering the proud position which we can take in the centre of this Union, the Keystone of this federal does not do in this day to hurl anothemas at us. [Cheers.] "God and the right" is our motto. When we have been faithful in defence of the constitution and the laws, it does not do to upbraid us with those matters of complaint which are made the pretext for secession in the south. It does not do for men to point their finger at Pennsylva-nia and say to her, "You have been unfaith-ful." Pennsylvania has obeyed that higher law which is established by the comity of nations, and which is based upon the law of God itself: that is, to respect your neighbors and their institutions." [Applause.]

Amid the warmest asseverations of devotion to the Union, and to every particle of the constitution, on the part of the gentlemen present, there was shown a unanimous determination to take no step backwards iavolving a departure from the principles upon which their triumph was achieved.

CALLING THEM HOME. - The Charleston Mercury "in behalf of the people of the state of South Carolina," calls upon "each and all of her sons, who are now engaged in the military service of the government of the United States, to renounce at once the sword and the rations of the vulgar oppressor, and to hasten at once to the homes that gave them birth."

A correspondent of the Louisville Journal, writing from Austin, on the 26th ult. says the excitement in that state is on the wane. The people were greatly moved on breath. An Englishman Lynchedin Mississippi. IM IS FLOGGED, TARRED AND COTTONED, FOR

A respectable looking man named Wm. Smithyman, a native of England, and for several years a resident of Juneau county, Wisconsin, arrived in this city on Tuesday, from Memphis, by the steamboat J. D. Perry. Mr. S. was driven from Mississippi last week after suffering severe injuries for crimes alleged against him, but of which he declares his entire innocence. He was formerly employed in this city for a few weeks, as a miller in the Planters! Mills, on Franklin avenue, and went to Mississippi for employment in June last. He bore let ters of recommendation and character, and obtained work in Panola and DeSoto counties, near the Tennessee line. He worked for several parties, dressing mill-stones, and met with no opposition from any party whatever till a week ago vesterday, when he started from Looxahomie, De Soto county, for Senatobia station, on the Tennessee Mississippi railroad, seven miles distant, employing a negro to carry himself and trunk in a wagon to the railroad. He was then on his way to Memphis. Arriving at Senatobia after dark, he proceeded to look up some freight for the negro's owner, and in doing so went into the freight depot. While there three or four persons approached him, and asked him where he was going and what he was doing. He told them he was looking for some freight for Looxahomie, but they charged him with being an abolitionist and a. suspicious person, and seized and threw him into a freight car, which they locked, and then went up into the village to tell the story. The negro was also arrested, and as afterwards appeared, was threatened with instant death if he did not confess that the man in the freight car had endeavored to persuade him to run off. The negro thinking, probably, to save himself from torture said that such was the ease, but, notwithstanding the confession, he was severely flogged. About 10 o clock a crowd of thirty or forty returned to the railroad station, took Smithyman out and marched him into the woods. There they stripped him naked, notwithstanding the weather was intensely cold, and gave him a

A man who appeared to be a doctor, then advised them to desist, saying that they would finish the job the next day. They then put him back in the freight car, with nothing but his clothes and an old rug to protect him during the night. In the morning he was released and permitted to pay $\vec{p}fty$ cents for a cup of coffee. An armed force styling themselves "Minute Men," then took him into custody afresh, went in to the woods again, made him strip, tied his hands around a tree, and then shaved his head as close as they could. The crowd orged him to tell all abut his doings in the interior, said that they knew he was guilty of exciting slaves to insurrection, had tampered with them, and all that. Three or our said that if he would confess, his life should be spared, but that if he did not he would be strung up. By this time Smithy-man was half dead from exhaustion and fright, and believing that it was his only chance of safety from hanging, he boldly avowed that he had tampered with slaves. With a shout, the eager listeners seized him and some were for hanging him right off. An attempt was made to get a rope around his neck, but others were so anxious for another operation that the would be executioners failed. Smithyman was stripped, and liquid tar, almost hot enough to scald was poured over his head, and half blinded as he was, the victim was not allowed to put his hands to his eyes to keep the tar from blinding him altogether. They then stuck him all over with loose cotton. After this was through they told him that he must start for Memphis immediately-forty miles off-and not stop till he reached that city. They gave him five minutes to put on his clothes, and while he was trying to pull off some of the cotton, several of the mob stood by kicking his limbs with their thick boots, black and blue, the marks of which kicking he still bears. They then allowed him to start. Smithyman walked all the way to Memphis, and took the boat

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a grow The AMAGAMMON OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words in other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into their own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming particularized in connection with Mr. spandling 'great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as 'common as electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been wern away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor horn."

Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, cont. Rhemmatism and all febrile disease constituting billow headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as read and atterbeat elections. Diseases of the learn are very frequently attented with headaches; Amenia and plethera are also affections which frequently clossion neadache. Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentry habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of coultile consequence to excite anxlety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and angerous diseases, and unless early oradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evits of which costiveness to the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like mature, while a long train of high-ful diseases such ne Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrheza, Dyseppsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hyperhandriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases unmed originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder found receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get that the disorder should receive Immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cophalic Pitts on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to buinan life.

Twinty Millions of Dollans Saven.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of the celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss, by this valuable invention. Having made his glue a household word, he now propose to do the work still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his glue, headache will soon much away like snow in July.

EST Over Excitement, and the mental care and anxiety locident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of nervous headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and any intion. Sufferers by this disorder can miways obtain speedy-raitef from these distressing attacks, by using one of the Cephalic Fills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and release the tension of the etomech which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Hoadacha Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debitity.

GREAT DISCOVERY—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalle Pill for relief of headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of fevers, either of which is a sme spacific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are foresten.

Rep Did you ever have the sick headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the leathing and dispust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study.—One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a hox of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nerrous or Sick Headuche may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained. They soldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxaftire, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system. The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long inves-tigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nerr-ous system or from a deranged state of the stomach. A Trip South.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6, 1860. MESSES. EDITORS :- I agreed with a numbar of my friends, when I left home, that when I saw anything to interest me, I would communicate the same. The question may arise why I have not done so before. In answer I will say that the first month after I left home I was sick a greater part of the time, and did not get any farther south than Cincinnati. On the 24th of last month I concluded, notwithstanding the excitement in the south, to make my way as far south as the people would let me go.

From Cincinnati I went to Louisville, and from Louisville I took a through ticket to Nashville, Tenn., with the promise of a stop-over ticket at Mammoth cave, which, however, I did not get, and was obliged to pass along or loose my ticket. On my arrival at Nashville I found there was an ad- in prices of wheat here. ditional excitement over the Montgomery raid on the Missouri border, which is doubtless exaggerated. Staying there one day, I found it was actually necessary to stay indoors or lay myself liable to a warmer coat than I think the climate requires. The lower class of people are perfectly crazy, set on by a set of political demagogues. The hotel keepers treated me like gentlemen and did all they could to protect me, but advised me not to attempt to winter in the south unless I was willing to confine myself to some hotel parlor, which I did not propose to do. Not liking the idea of turning back without seeing more of the "institution," I took the cars for Stevenson, Alabama, but finding the political atmosphere still hotter the farther south I got, I concluded to make my visit short, and accordingly turned my course towards Washington, where I arrived on the 4th inst., glad to get where I could breathe free and say what I please.

I do not think there is any danger in traveling on railroads in the south, if a man wants to go right along without stoppingthat is if he has got money enough to pay five or six cents a mile for riding.

I shall stay here a few days to see the elephant, and hear the southern lion roar. The southern members, with few exceptions, say they want no compromise-all they want is peaceable secession. The president says there is no such thing as secession or coercion; rather an awkward posi-

I shall probably be at home by the first of January, satisfied that Rock county is about as good a place to live as there is anywhere. Yours. DANIEL JOHNSON.

GET YOUR TICKETS FOR THE LECTURE .-Without doubt Lappin's Hall will be crowded on Thursday evening, upon the occasion of John B. Gough's lecture on temperance, and it will be well for those who design to attend to purchase their tickets previous to the lecture. It will be extremely unpleasant for a large crowd to stand in the cold at the ticket office waiting to be served, as is sometimes the case. There is also a searcity of small change which will add to the annoyance of those who wait till the evening of the lecture before securing their tickets. Foreseeing these difficulties, the committee of the Temperance League have left tickets for sale at the two bookstores, Newell's and Moseley's, and at Bootman's Music Store. The doors of Lappin's Hall will be opened at 6 o'clock P. M., and the lecture will commence at 7. UTILITY AND BEAUTY.-A kerosene lamp makes a useful as well as ornamental holiday present. Looking over the extensive assortment of Tallman & Collins, we think no trouble will be experienced in suiting the most particular. These lamps are substituting oil and burning fluid wherever their qualities are known.

BALL AT EMERALD GROVE .- A ball will be given at the house of Charles Graves, in Emerald Grove, Christmas eve, 24th inst. The young people of the neighborhood will undoubtedly have a pleasant party.

of Gough's lecture in Milwaukee:

Another very large audience attended the lecture of John B. Gough last evening, at Albany Hall. Every available foot of room in the passages and on the stage was filled with eager listeners. His subject was Temperance. A subject which in his hands receives ample justice. For nearly two hours he held the audience spell bound, at one moment wiping away the sympathetic tears, and at another laughing boisterously. Mr. Gough has sensibly improved since he left this country for Europe. His powers Cloths to Select From. of eloquence have become matured and his wonderful faculty of mimicry is made sub-servient and held in restraint. He is the same impetuous, earnest orator, however, with a deeper insight into the great human heart, and broader and deeper views of the Lowest Cash Prices world and humanity.

It would be utterly impossible to describe

in the limits of a paragraph either his powers or their effects on an audience. No such combination of oratory and pantomime ever before stepped upon the temperance stage, and it would not be saying too much to as-sert that the audience would willingly have sat there another hour and heard him, their sympathies enlisted and their nerves tingling under the wonderful mesmeric influence of the orator.

He concluded his lecture with the well-known and beautiful apostrophe to water, Infants found on door steps in Philadel-phia are significantly called step-children.

Coustipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many tils finsh is heir to" is so prevalent, so, little understood, and so much, neglected as costiveness. Other originating in carelessness, or soder-tary habits: it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of meny of the most faud and tangerous diseases, and unless carty-heradicated it will bring the sulterer to an antimely graye. Among the lighter cytis, of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headsche, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and of there of the hature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Albesses, Dysentary; Distribut, Dyspeppia, Apoliexy, Epilepsy, Farilysis, Hysteria, Hypothoudriasis, Mclancholy and Insampy, riest indicate their presence in the system by this marming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases maned originate in Constipation, but take occan independent, existence unless the cause is cradicated in an early claye. among the numerous causes of nervous headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a data blow to all energy and an bition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from those distressing attacks, by using one of the Caphalle fills whenever, the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomachewhich always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

Great Discarger.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox the Cephalic Pill for relief of headach, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of fivers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

How totally until you were for pleasure, conversation or study.—One of the Cephalic Pitts would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nerrous or Sick Headache may be prevented: and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject. They act gently upon the bowels,-

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Lazative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headaclie, whether originating in the nervour system or from a deranged state of the stomach. They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect fafety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to chil
